One Year Later...

September 11

"As we honor today the victims, the survivors and those who risked much for themselves on the 11th of September 2001, let us recall that they all have a love story. They loved their families, their churches, their communities and their country. But in a moment of severe testing, those who survived responded selflessly because they loved one another." Marc Whitt quoted Col. John Brinsfield at a special convocation service to honor America's latest and bravest heroes. As the United States' past tragedy reaches its one year anniversary, Campbellsville University took time to remember our nation's heritage, and look forward to its bright future.

Above: Fire Department Captain Bill Hall and Chief Allen Johnson, Barry Dobson, and Ron Mann salute the flag in honor of their nation.

Student Life

These are the times that make the memories for college students. With all the activities like the picnics, football games, and dances it seems like there is hardly time for them all. Then there is the studying and jobs that consume time as well. Whether the time is spent studying for a big test, relaxing in the dorm, or just hanging out with a friend, this is what is going to be remembered most about college life.

New Construction

At Campbellsville University, there are many improvements that have been made throughout the past year. The dedication of the Joan White Howell Environmental Education Center at Clay Hill Memorial Forest was held on June 20, 2002. The Campbellsville University Technology Training Center was dedicated on August 27, 2002. Montgomery Library underwent a complete renovation late last school year and the final improvements were made during the fall semester. Construction began on the Tuggle-Morris Wellness Center and dedication ceremonies were held on February 17, 2003. Plans are being made to construct the George and Marie Ransdell Chapel, the Hawkins Athletic Complex, and the E. Bruce Heilman Student Complex.

Welcome Week

Welcome Week starts out with Sunday Night Explosion and continues on with exciting activities all week long. These activities also include Dorm Wars and the Welcome Back Dance. These help to bring everyone together to get them acquainted with each other and form lasting relationships. In addition to all of the activities, the students had to become adjusted to living in the dorms. This is a time to kick back, relax, and enjoy the good company around you.

Everyone is outside on Stapp lawn, having a great time in the nice weather and enjoying each others' company.

Freshman Week

College is a huge transition for incoming freshmen. Campbellsville University tries to make the step a little easier by offering activities like a picnic with the president, welcome week dances, and other special events. At activities like this, freshmen get to meet their classmates, and they can connect with each other, sharing the same anxieties, fears, and excitement about the upcoming year.

Family Weekend

Family Weekend is a time set aside for the students to introduce their families and friends to their new college life. The Friday and Saturday activities included a picnic, pep rally, and a football game. These activities provide enjoyment for all.

Convocation

Convocation is a time for the student body, faculty, staff, and administration to come together to worship and enjoy other special events. There are many services and ceremonies that take place at convocation. Examples of these include the September 11 Memorial, Heritage Day, and Awards Day. Also alumni Jay Montgomery and Chris Morgan returned to share their messages.

Homecoming

The annual Homecoming Weekend was an exciting time for CU students, faculty, staff and alumni. Friday night the festivities began with a picnic and a pep rally to get everyone ready for the big game. Saturday the day started with a community-wide parade, which led to Stapp Lawn where various booths were set up by clubs and organizations. Other activities included an antique car show and a reunion of the Campus Times, Maple Trail, and TV-4 student workers and staffs. Lindsay Ball was crowned Homecoming Queen during halftime of the football game against Lambuth.

Homecoming Dance

After a busy weekend with various Homecoming activities, CU students wrapped up the festivities with a night of dancing at the annual Homecoming Dance that was sponsored by the Student Government Association. The theme of the dance was "Greatest Hits." The DJ entertained the crowd with various hits from past decades. Overall, the dance proved to be a hit of its own by giving students the chance to socialize.

Spring Formal

The many students who attended this year's Spring Formal agreed that this year was a hit. The Spring Formal is the most anticipated event of the year and was as successful as ever. It was held at the Kentucky Rural Center for Development in Somerset, Kentucky on April 12, 2003. The Student Government Association sponsored the event and worked very hard to ensure a good time for all CU students. This year the SGA added many special touches by having beautiful chandeliers, an awesome DJ, and great food. Students dressed up in semi-formal to formal attire and made the hour drive to Somerset to get away from the usual jeans and t-shirt of everyday campus life.

Acoustic Cafe

Now in its third year, the Acoustic Cafe continues to gain recognition as a new Campbellsville University tradition. Each month the Office of Student Activities brings in talented singers, instrumentalists, and poets to perform for the student body. The Cafe transforms the gameroom of the Student Activities Center into a quaint coffee house complete with dim lighting, a small stage, and live entertainment. There have also been many past and present CU students that have performed in the series.

CU Job Fair

This year Campbellsville University's Phi Beta Lambda chapter, along with the Career Services and Counseling Center, sponsored a Job Fair on campus. It was open to members of the community, CU students, and students from other area college campuses. This gave students the opportunity to visit with over twenty employers, learning about jobs available within their company. The members of the PBL and Career Services and Counseling Center plan to host the Job Fair annually. It was a big success for CU's campus.

Valentine Pageant

Luck Be A Lady Tonight! Eight young ladies represented organizations from CU. Competing were Erika Graham (Stapp Hall), Kari McGrath (SGA), Ashley Shouse (College Republicans), Mary Beth England (FCA), Heather Henry (Student Ambassadors), Carrie Fenley (Chorale), Brittney Basham (BSU), and Leah Steele (Village). Many new friendships were created by coming together and preparing for the pageant. "I really enjoyed getting to know the girls and felt it was an honor to be a part of the Valentine pageant." - Heather Henry "I can personally say it was the most fun I have ever had." - Leah Steele

People

The many faces that we all come in contact with help to form lasting memories and unforgettable friendships. Whatever the role may be - student, teacher, or staff member - each person makes up a part of Campbellsville University. Students come from all over the country and world to find their calling at C.U. Without the valuable role of people throughout campus, what would Campbellsville University be?

Organizations

After a long day of classes and work, it is nice to be able to be with a group of friends doing what students do best. Whatever group that students choose to be a part of at Campbellsville University, whether it is Creative Ministries, Kentucky Heartland Outreach, BSU, or any of the numerous other ministries, students will be able to find their calling for what is right for them. These organizations help to build friendships and dreams for those who are involved. They also help to build understanding and hope for those who are around them.

Student Government

The Student Government Association's mission is to voice the concerns of the students to the administration. SGA helps with many organizations and activities that are held throughout the school year. The Student Government Association includes the President, Vice President, Vice President of Activities, Secretary, Treasurer, Parliamentarian, and class officers and/or senators.

BSU Dinner Theater

Dinner Theater is an annual event sponsored by the Baptist Student Union. This allows students who are involved in BSU to show their talents that God has given them. This year's theme was "A Fish Out of Water", which told the story of Jonah. The show consist of drama, black light, interpretive movement, a praise band, and a guest speaker. This event is one of the main fundraisers for BSU missions; allowing students to go around the world and spread God's word to the lost people. Dinner Theater has always been an event that the BSU looks forward to producing every year.

Arts

It's amazing how much time is spent working with music, art, and drama. Not only does it take extreme amounts of time, it takes a tremendous amount of talent to be a part of the arts. The arts have their effects on everyone, whether you're singing a song, playing an instrument, dazzling the audience with talent, or just sitting back and enjoying the show. They all help to form lives and friendships.

TIGER MARCHING BAND

The Tiger Marching Band began the 2002 season by celebrating its tenth anniversary. Founded in 1992 by Director of Bands Dr. David M. McCullough the band has developed into one of the best college marching bands in the state and beyond. The 2002 program's exciting and energetic Spanish/Latin flavor captured audiences and performers alike with "Camino Real, The Say Good-Bye and Children of Sanchez."

Assistant Director of Bands, Jennifer Tinnell joined McCullough in directing the band through its season that included all "Fighting Tiger" home football games and exhibition performances at North Laurel High School in London and at the KMEA AA West Regional Band Competition in Benton. The band completed its performance schedule of this historic season with the Campbellsville "Parade of Lights" Christmas Parade.

Orchestra

Because of the growth of the orchestra, the winter and spring concerts were moved to Campbellsville Baptist Church. Large audiences heard the orchestra performing music by Brahms, Stravinsky, Grieg, Smetana, Mozart, and Moore (Dr. Jim Moore, CU Music Professor). Don-Yun, CU adjunct bassoon professor, was featured in the spring concert playing the "Bassoon Concerto in F" by Carl Maria von Weber.

Concert Band

The Concert Band is the general enrollment ensemble of the University Bands. About half of its members are music majors or minors. Other members of the Concert Band represent a wide range of academic departments from all across campus. The Concert Band is conducted by Dr. David M. McCullough, Director of Bands, and Ms. Jennifer L. Tinnell, Assistant Director of Bands. The band's winter concert included Ralph Vaughan Williams' "English Folk Song Suite," "A Dream of Mountains" by Reber Clark, the Norwegian March "Valdres" by Johannes Hanssen, "With Sounding Trumpets," by Francis McBeth and James Swearingen's "Into the Joy of Spring." The band's spring concert featured senior music major Jaime Smith as euphonium soloist for the ever-popular "Napoli Variations" by Herman Bellstedt. Other works on the April program included "The Universal Judgment" by Camille de Nardis, Francis McBeth's "Masque," "Novo Lenio" by Samuel Hazo, Clare Grundman's "An Irish Rhapsody," and the Henry Fillmore march "Americans We."

Jazz Ensemble

The Campbellsville University Jazz Ensemble has completed another very successful year of tours and performances. The Jazz Ensemble's Fall Tour took them to eastern Kentucky high schools. The Kentucky Baptist Convention invited them to perform a pre-session concert, this being the first time for any university jazz ensemble to perform for a KBC State Convention. Other performances included Heritage Day, a November Convocation, and two evening concerts at Gheens Recital Hall.

Chamber Choir

The CU Chamber Choir is a small select ensemble that performs a wide variety of music for diverse audiences. Chamber Choir tours with the University Chorale and the Handbell Choir every spring, performing for high schools, churches, and other groups in Kentucky as well as in numerous locations throughout the United States.

Handbell Choir

The CU Handbell Choir has been directed by Nevalyn Price Moore for over twenty years. It is one of the few college handbell choirs anywhere. They lead worship services at churches and tour each spring with the CU Chorale. Some of their favorite religious pieces were "The Lord's Prayer" and "Down by the Riverside." Popular pieces included "Take Five," "Sabre Dance" and "Puff, The Magic Dragon." One of the highlights of the year was the purchase of four additional large bells which give a very distinctive low bass sound.

Right: Mrs. Moore gets a surprise bell from the entire choir.

Chorale

The CU Chorale had a very busy year with several highlights. Chorale membership reached an all-time high of 50 singers. During the spring semester this was the largest group ever, with a full and strong sound. In November, the Chorale took a Fall Mini-Tour, and joined forces from Georgetown and Cumberland for the annual Kentucky Baptist Convention meeting. All three directors conducted this combined chorus. The Spring Tour, along with the Chamber and Handbell Choirs, included nine church concerts and six high school programs, with stops in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama. Other important events during the year were singing for Heritage Day, presenting a Convocation program, and providing music for Commencement.

Wind Ensemble

The Wind Ensemble is the elite organization of the University Bands. With its membership selected through audition and by special invitation, the Wind Ensemble is comprised of the finest wind and percussion instrumentalists from the University campus and local communities.

The Wind Ensemble's Spring Concert, conducted by Director of Bands Dr. David McCullough, included New Century Dawn by David Gillingham, two movements from New England Triptych ("When Jesus Wept" and "Chester") by William Schuman, Be Thou My Vision by David Gillingham, and Donald Gratham's Southern Harmony.

Concert Chorus

The Concert Chorus is the non-auditioned concert choir of Campbellsville University and performs one concert each semester. This year the fall concert chorus performed John Rutter's "Requiem" while the spring concert chorus featured Paul Bassler's "Songs of Faith."

Students use software identical to that used by professional newspapers and also apply the same writing, photography, editing and design skills.

The newspaper would not be possible without the support of students, faculty, staff and the administration.

Amber Covert types on a copy to get it ready for publishing.

Calan McKinney and Kwaku Osebreh plan layouts for the following month's edition.

Sports

Sports are a part of almost everyone's life in one way or another, whether it's being part of a team or just showing support for the teams. Being part of a team can help to accomplish victories. Sometimes being involved with those teams can help to find the calling for your life. Sports help you get into shape as well as shape your life. It gives a sense of responsibility and discipline. Determination gets you where you want to go and sports are a good way to help you get there.

Dance Team

Campbellsville University has added a brand new performing ensemble...The Dance Team. With nine members, the dance team performs before football games and at half time during home basketball games. The CU dancers really worked hard and practiced harder to get this new addition up and running. The nine members of the Dance Team include Shelley Breeding, Allison Fields, Amanda Hughes, Kimberly Latimer, Ashley Lawson, Sarah McKinley, Stephanie McMahan, Leah Steele, and Liz Wells.

Closing

The school year for Campbellsville University has come to a close. As everyone finishes up that last final test, packs their suitcases, and says their goodbyes for the summer, there is freedom that seems to come over everyone. Some think of it as another year down and that much closer to their future goals. As graduation comes around, others are going to be just starting their future. Another year has been completed for the students and faculty of Campbellsville University.

Message from the President

With each passing day, Campbellsville University continues to grow and expand in providing quality Christian higher education to the community, region, state and world.

The state of the world, especially with the war to liberate Iraq, reminds us that there has never been a time in which the mission of Campbellsville University has been more needed.

The state of the economy, war and terrorism internationally, and the myriad challenges facing our world in this day, remind us how truly critical it is to provide academic excellence, servant leadership training, and a Christ-centered worldview.

As we look back on the 2002-03 academic year, we have accomplished great things, but the future is ahead.

When you return in the fall, the O. D. and Bessie Hawkins Athletic Complex will be completed. It will include classrooms and facilities for our football and baseball teams.

The E. Bruce Heilman Student Center Complex is a high priority for us. The complex will move Campbellsville University forward in terms of better serving the needs of students and providing wonderful new facilities that will benefit the university in years to come.

The George and Marie Ransdell Chapel project is in the preliminary architectural phase. The chapel will be a wonderful new addition to our campus. It is sorely needed.

The Village-type residential house for women is also being planned. These new residential units will provide more modern housing for female students and lead to subsequent renovation of North Hall as additional housing for men.

God has abundantly blessed CU with an incredibly talented faculty and staff, a vibrant and growing student body, improved facilities and financial support and nearly 100 years of outstanding Christian education and service.

We wish our 263 Campbellsville University graduates Godspeed as they begin their journey following commencement, and we urge them to remain in contact with their alma mater.

May God bless each of you.

Sincerely,

Michael V. Carter
President
Campbellsville University

Colophon

The 2003 Maple Trail was published by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas. There were 775 copies of Volume 75 printed. The 9x12 book contains 184 pages.

The photographs were taken by the Maple Trail staff and Supertone Studio except where special photo credit is given.

I would like to thank the following:

- Dr. Michael V. Carter and Dr. Frank Cheatham for their support and encouragement.
- John Burch for furnishing our office space and equipment.
- The Office of Athletics and the Office of Public Relations and Marketing and the Central Kentucky News-Journal for sharing photographs. Also, I would like to thank W. D. McCubbin for his willingness to meet our needs.

I would also like to thank Mr. Hugh Black, our yearbook representative, and Monika Thomas, our Taylor account executive, who have both been a tremendous help throughout the making of this yearbook.

A special thanks goes to our yearbook advisor, Patty McDowell, for all the support and help that she has provided for all of her staff. I also want to thank the staff for all of their hard work that they put into making this yearbook possible.

I hope this yearbook helps you to look back on the memories that you have made here at Campbellsville University and may you all be blest to find your calling and live it well.
